LECTURE-32

Interview I

WHAT IS AN INTERVIEW

An interview is a conversation between two or more people the interviewer and the interviewee

Interviews are exchange of information between a reporter and a source.

The interview is an active method of gathering news.

For a journalist, an interview is usually in a form of question and answer session

Interview is one of the most important and easy way to gather information and create content for a story.

It is an efficient and easy way to prepare a news program or news show.

Interview has to create a three-way interaction, a successful interview will include all these three types of people.

The best interview is conversations in which the required information arises as a part of the conversation.

If the reporter asks right questions, a source becomes a window to the news. A story can fail if the reporter asks the wrong questions or not enough questions.

In interview the reporter has a control over the news gathering situation.

Interviewer has to focus on one central theme of interest.

During interview, do not ask close ended questions (that will answer as yes or no).

Remember that it is your right to ask questions but it is also the right of the other person to refuse to answer.

A good interview technique requires practice so do not expect to master immediately.

“Practice makes the man perfect”

To be a master of interview reporter has to learn the art of interview. He must develop research habits. Prepare questions in advance on the subject of interviews.

He must plan a strategy.

The tone of the interviewer should be according to the objective, such as soft tone, harsh tone, aggressive tone, hard tone, submissive tone etc.

Reporter must know the techniques of presenting the interview. He should know what comes first. Which sound bite should be quoted and how to edit the interview.

TECHNIQUES (FOR QUESTIONING)

- Questions should be clear and to the points.
- Ask the question don't make statements
- No unnecessary warm up questions
- Don't preface question with deferential words.

- If you happen to record someone who has left the country but is still wanted in that country, you should note that whatever you broadcast may prejudice the trial. Interviewing a person who is wanted by police, itself is a crime/offence.

NEWS CONFERENCES

- News conferences are normally free for all reporters relatively they should be well organized. After the opening statement, reporters are suppose to ask the questions.

While questioning in the press conference do not offend and try to get some more information by asking a relevant question.

LIVE INTERVIEWS

- Live interviews are difficult. In live interview you have to get the information in seconds. Try to get the news quickly, as basic questions to get required information. In live interview you should be briefed and to the point. While interviewing, try to be friendly. Ask one question at one time. You should have objective oriented questions and must be aware of the subject. Plan your questions carefully. Start with easy questions, and then go for the hard ones. You should know exactly why you are conducting the interview. Be focused.

Interview IV

INTERVIEW

- INTERVIEW: Conducting a successful interview requires a combination of skills and arrangements. There are various kinds of interviews. One of the kinds is Funnel Interview. In Funnel Interview a mostly practiced form is Inverted Funnel.

WHAT IS INVERTED FUNNEL INTERVIEW?

- Inverted Funnel Interview is structured like a “Cone”. In these types of interviews common and key questions are asked such as – How old are you? , - Where did you get your experience?
- While asking such questions two factors determine the phase of interview:
- How the subject will react?
- The length of interview.
- Closed ended Interview: In this type of interview to the point questions are asked for example: Do you get on well with your boss? , Who will you vote for this election? ,
- Open ended Interview: In these interviews no specific question is asked. For example: Tell me about your relationship with your boss, what do you think about the two candidates in this election?
- If you are going to have any sort of arranged interview you have to prepare a checklist:
- Do your background research.
- Seek appointment and schedule the interview.
- Write down questions in advance.
- Use shorthand or some other method to take notes quickly.
- Ask for explanations.
- Observe little things minor details as well.
- Be tough but fair.

- Keeps it going.
- Relax and be confident.
- For good professional interview one has to take care of following steps:
- Step one: Prepare a list of questions, making sure you have more than you think you will need. Also prepare priority list.
- Step two: Find a quiet place to talk if the interview is face to face.
- Step three: Turn Off your phone or ask not to be interrupted for the duration of the interview.
- Step four: Set up a small recorder before interview and also take notes.
- Step five: Carefully observe and make notes about the surroundings and the unusual behavior of the person.
- Step six: Start up with small talk to loosen up the subject. Most people are not accustomed in talking to strangers.
- Step seven: Ask direct questions. If the person who is giving the interview goes off on a track, gently remind him or her of the question at hand.
- Step eight: Take diligent notes until the end.
- Step nine: Pay special attention after recording has been turned off. The best information and quotes often come after the interview has formally ended.
- Step ten: Always speak with another person who may have different opinion about the topic.

IMAGE EDITING, WHAT IS IMAGE EDITING

- The processes of altering images, whether they are digital photographs, traditional analog photographs, or illustrations.
- Images are stored in a computer in the form of a grid of picture elements.
- These pixels contain the color and brightness information of an image.
- Image editors can change the pixels to enhance the image in many ways.

IMAGE SIZE ALTERATION

- Image editors can resize images in a process often called image scaling, making them large or smaller.
- Noise Reduction
- Dust and scratches.

SPECIAL EFFECTS

- Special effects can create unusual results.
- Contrast and Brightening

EDITING ON COMPUTER

REVOLUTION

- Computers have revolutionized the art of editing. Editing on the screen is faster, more comprehensive and more detailed than on the hard copy.

COMPLICATION

- Computer is a sophisticated machine; its editing operations are complicated. They have to be understood well by sub-editors before they begin to edit.

TECHNICAL KNOW HOW

- Sub-editors do not have to be computer experts to edit. However sub-editors must know how to use the keyboard.

INSTANT / FACILITIES

- Computer editing is instant editing although it is near-perfect editing. Facilities such as spell-check, word-count, short keys cut, paste, copy, make sub-editors job easy.

CURSOR

- Experience suggests that sharp and tight proof-reading cannot be done on the computer because the eye does not stop at each word and tends to move with the cursor. Take out print-outs, and, pencil in hand, read the script again and again.
- A comma at a wrong place can change the entire meaning of a sentence.
- Similarly, a wrongly spelt name or wrongly used word can mar beautifully edited copy.

LECTURE- 43
EDITING V

HEADLINES

- A headline is catch line or a marketing sentence of the news item of a newspapers/News channels.
- Headline is, in fact, the lead (intro) punchy or dramatic words which attracts the readers / viewers.
- Writing headings is an art.
- Headline job is to help the reader to decide whether or not to read the story or buy a news paper.
- Good Vocabulary of a sub editor can be helpful in writing the attractive headlines.

Effective headlines are those which have the following characteristics.

- In present tense
- In active voice
- With a personal tone
- Simple
- Precise
- positive

As an example of present tense we can see the following.

- The President signs the legislation at noon (active).
- At noon, the legislation will be signed by the president (passive)
- How an economy of words can be done in headline. Two trains get in to each others (accident)
- One way of making news is
- 50 were injured]
 when trains] 8 words
 were in collision]

The other way to make the news headline.

- Two trains get in to each others (accident)

- 50 are injured]
as trains] 6 words
collide]

Another way to make the news with using minimum words.

- 50 hurt]
As trains] 5 words (BEST)
collide]
- In headlines avoid Jargon.
- Jargon is terminology which is especially defined in relationship to a specific activity.
- Some time phrasing jargon would attract reader to read the news.
- For example

"ادھر تم، ادھر ہم"
"صدر بھی موم ہو گئے"
"چاقو لہراتے ہوئے فرار ہو گئے"

- Headlines should be designed to attract the reader's attention. In headlines punctuation --- colons, semi-colons, dashes should be avoided.

ABBREVIATION

- Abbreviation should not be used unless they are standard, conventional and generally understood, such as FIA, FBI, UN, USA.....
- How To Start Writing
- "Once you know what you want to say, start writing immediately. Forget the words count, forget the rhythm – just keep pounding away your idea". If you will capture the first thought you can improve that but if you delay in capturing your thoughts you may feel difficulty in phrasing the headline.

SOME RULES

- Match the lead with the story. Make sure they say the same thing.
- Be consistent.
- Be accurate.
- Start the head with an action word.
- Avoid double meanings.
- Don't split adjectives and nouns.
- Be specific.
- Solve layout problems.
- Avoid initials.
- Avoid meaningless words.
- Write conversationally (simple and direct)
- Write concisely
- Simplify the message
- Don't give orders (listen up)
- Don't characterize the news as good, bad, interesting or shocking.
- Don't start a lead sentence with the name of an unknown or unfamiliar person.
- Don't write a first sentence with yesterday.
- Don't use technical words
- Don't start a story with "Another", "More" , "Once" and "Again"
- Don't lose or fail to reach the viewer... talk to them, not "at" them.
- Here are some guidelines for Urdu medium students.

EDITING VI

TV EDITING

WHAT EDITING CAN DO?

- With the help of editing, you can omit moments that are ir-relevant or distracting or contain errors. You can shorten the length of shot or action or the duration of video film, artistically, the potentials of editing are far reaching.
- Editors cut routine and boring parts of the action out of the scene to speed up the pacing.
- Editing helps in connecting various shots into a sequence and various sequences into complete movie or a package.
- A film. Video editor is a person who edits and assembles footage into a coherent video. He plays a dynamic and creative role.
- Video or Film editor works with the layer of images, the story, the music, the rhythm, the pace and the performance.

FOUR TYPES OF EDITING ARE WIDELY DONE

- Continuity cutting/ editing
- Rational cutting/ editing
- Dynamic cutting/ editing
- Thematic cutting/editing

CONTINUITY EDITING

Continuity editing is an editing which shortens “real time to screen time”

The viewers’ imagination replaced the missing shots and created an illusion of continuity. We call this “continuity editing.”

RATIONAL EDITING

- In rational editing you can edit not only to control time but you are creating relationships between subjects that do not exist in real life.

- Cutting back and forth among different actions, creates a relation to show that all the events are happening at the same time.

DYNAMIC CUTTING

|In dynamic editing sophisticated inter-cutting creates dramatic emphasis, convey moods or abstract ideas that are not expressed in direct form.

THEMATIC EDITING (Montage)

By applying thematic editing one can create a rapid, impressionistic sequence of disconnected images to communicate feelings and ideas.

Video editing helps to control the length of the shot

A rhythm to what you are seeing?

EXERCISE

- Watch again and again your favorite movie and concentrate on the editing and shot selection.
- Ask yourself why the producer or director used this shot?

VIDEO EDITING

- In mechanical terms video editing is a moment you choose to change from one shot to another. It is also called an editing point.
- cut, mix etc
- The order of shots (sequence).

what editing can do:

- Editing decisions have a direct influence on how your audience responds to the programme, their interpretation and their emotional reactions also count.
- By doing an artistic editing you can influence audience response and the impact in a dramatic manner.

IMPORTANCE OF EDITING

- Even editing can shift the centre of interest, redirect the attention to another aspect of the subject or the scene.
- Editing can create interrelationship that may or may not have existed.
- Editing can change the entire significance of an action showing instant tension, humor or horror.

TRIANGLE APPROACH: (News editing)

- If you are doing news editing and you have to meet the deadline, the best way is to apply a triangle approach take
 - i) Three best video shots
 - ii) Three best sound bites
 - iii) Three best (critical) Piece of information
- Organize them and you story is complete.
